FOREWORD

When we, the class of '66, ventured into secondary education at Stephens-Lee, we were wide-eyed with the expectation of a unique experience. We were fearful of what would be ahead of us. We were afraid to face the books, for what would be in them; the teachers, for how they would teach us; and the upperclassmen, for how they would accept us. Somehow, we faced these fears and soon discovered that our worry was in vain. The books weren't too bad, the teachers were co-operative, and the upperclassmen proved to be our friends.

The years passed, sometimes with frustations, but frequently with pleasures that only enlightened youth can enjoy. One of our painful pleasures was the privilege of completing our high school career in a new building under a new name, South French Broad. This innovation, we believe, provided for us the supreme test of our allegience to the name, Stephens-Lee.

During our interim at Stephens-Lee, crossroad after crossroad loomed on our horizon, presenting at times difficult decisions to be made. Now that we have passed the crossroads and chartered our courses, we believe that we have proven ourselves worthy recipients of the cumulative award -- a high school diploma.

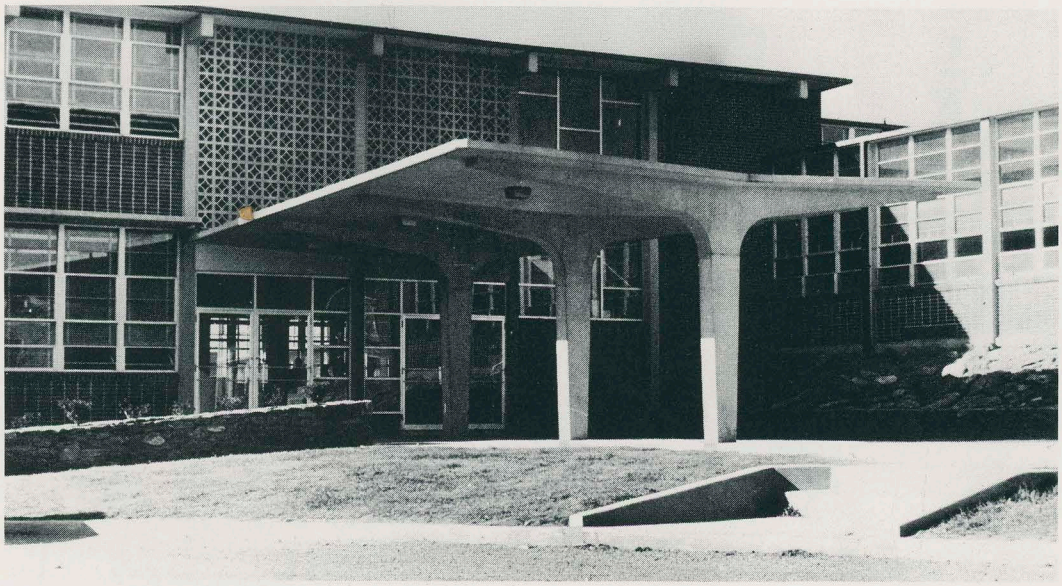
It is with profund regret that we bid adieu to our Alma Mater, so we, the editor and staff of THE BEAR, present this yearbook as a memorabilia of our experiences and actitivies during our senior year at South French Broad.

DEDICATION

We, the class of 1966, dedicate this yearbook to our senior advisors: Mrs. O. D. Dunn, Mrs. G. P. Forney, Mrs. E. R. Eubanks, Mrs. E. W. Williams, Mr. E. L. Fair, and Mrs. O. M. Reynolds who have guided us in the transition from adolescence to young adulthood, and who have instilled within us the pride of knowledge, the unerring desire for accomplishment, and the capacity to realize the potentials we possess.

OUR HERITAGE

How dear to the alumni are the sight of the Alma Mater and the sound of the school song. For these two subjects bring fond memories of by-gone days. No matter how far flung the habitats of this alumni may be, we shall always strive to think of our school which aided us in our development, and the song which bade homage to this institution.



* O STEPHENS - LEE

O Stephens-Lee, dear Stephens- Lee,
Our hearts are full of love for thee;
A champion brave thy youth to save,
Thy children honor thee.

Home of truth, we do believe
Noble deeds thou wilt achieve;
In sun or rain, we shall remain
Faithful to thee, dear Stephens-Lee.

* At press time, the words of our original school song had not been changed.

ADMINISTRATION & FACULTY

OUR PRINCIPAL

HIS MESSAGE

Dear Seniors:

One of the grand experiences of my life and one of the great rewards of teaching is to be associated with a group of young people as they grow into adulthood. To see them develop, as they pass through the many stages of these formative years, into eager and capable young men and women who are willing to assume the responsibilities of such an undertaking as the publishing of this yearbook is thrilling indeed.

Our hope is that through your associations with your fellow-students, your teachers, and with your friends, you have grown in the accumulation and understanding of knowledge, in the ability to get along well with others, and in the desire to do something for advancement and well-being of mankind.

We shall watch with interest your progress in the future, hoping that the associations of your high school years will be of value to you in meeting and conquering the challenges that lie ahead. May God bless you in your efforts and crown you with success.

In the conditions of modern times the rule is absolute. The race that does not value trained intelligence is doomed. Not all our heroes, not all our friends, not all our victories on land or sea can move back the finger of fate. Today we maintain ourselves, tomorrow science will have moved forward yet one more step, and there will be no appeal to the judgement which will be pronounced on the uneducated.

TO THOSE WHO MUST ENTER . . .

Heaven is not reached at a single bound;
But we build the letter by which we rise
From the lowly earth to the vaulted skies,
And we mount to its summit round by round.

He could see naught but vanity in beauty,
And naught but weakness in a fond caress,
And pitied men whose views of Christian duty
Allowed indulgence in such foolishness.

God give us men! A time like this demands
Strong minds, great hearts, true faith, and ready hands;
Men whom the lust of office does not kill;
Men whom the spoils of office cannot buy;
Men who possess opinions and a will;
Men who have honor; Men who will not lie.

WE'LL REMEMBER

It's a time for joy, a time for tears

A time we'll treasure all our years-"

When we, the class of '66, march down the aisles, we shall reflect on the "good 'ole days" at Stephens-Lee and South French Broad. For they were days fraught with strife and, at times, ultimate joy.

Freshman days were naturally apprehensive and fraught with the struggle of adapting ourselves to a new environment, but we found this to be only a minor problem. For we were introduced to a program of study which was much harder than we had known. Everyone wanted to be associated with Mrs. Eubanks and Mr. Hankins, teachers who were also new to the system. Freshman boys, James Simuel, Joseph Byrd, James Watkins, John Paige and Harold Finley gave promise outstanding athletic ability. James Simuel was the first member of our class to become a member of the Varsity Club. Cynthia Calhoun and Helen Byrd became Bearettes. Carolyn Lyles was chosen as a majorette, and Marlene Ford was an attendant to "Miss Homecoming" -- an honor which she held for three consecutive years.

Our Sophomore year saw us emerging from our cocoon of naivete as we spread our new-found wings and dipped into the round of senior high school activities. Shirleen Sims and Jane Young were elected officers of the Student Council. Eugene Epps attended the annual science seminar at A & T College; Hal Guess attended Howard University during his summer vacation on a research grant-in-aid program. Walterene Moorehead and Hattie Shivers were always on hand to cheer our athletic teams to victory.

Presently we became Juniors. Hearts and minds were set on making plans for the Junior-Senior Prom which we termed "the event" of the year. We believed that our gesture of honoring the class of '65 was the best ever. The Crown and Scepter Club received into its fold the largest number ever from the Junior class. Sharon Hadden won third place in the district typing contest held in Charlotte. Later she participated on the state level.

Now we have reached the apex of our high school career. We became members of the Senior Climaxers under the sponsorship of the Y.W.C.A. George Weaver was elected mayor of South French Broad; James Simuel and Ira Waters led the football team to a 6-3 record. Joseph Byrd set the pace for varsity basketball. Aiding him were: Allen Pinkston, Michael Fleming, James Watkins and Kenneth Shivers. Carolyn Lyles became drum majorette in the band. Marlene Ford climaxed her role as homecoming attendant by being chosen "Miss South French Broad". Senior attendants were Rita Lee and Rhea Hunting.

Radio Station WWNC instituted a Youth Forum Program which included seniors from both Lee Edwards and South French Broad High Schools. Our first panelists were George Weaver and Hattie Shivers. From time to time other seniors were privileged to state their views on current local, state, and national issues. Hal Guess was elected President of the Senior Class, and Marvin Hursey was the editor of both the Skylighter, our newspaper, and The Bear, our yearbook.

Now, at the termination of our long journey through public school education, we believe that our years spent at Stephens-Lee -- pardon us -- South French Broad have been the happiest of our life.
